THEIR SILVER ANNIVERSARY

St. James Christian Endeavor Society Celebrates its Twenty Fifth Anniversary. Present Faithful Member with Medal.

The twenty fifth anniversary of the founding of the St. James Christian Endeavor Society was held in the main auditorium of the church Sunday evening in the presence of a large audience. The society was the first of its kind in Adams County and from it a number of others have sprung, among them being the one at the Muhlenberg Mission in Africa.

Miss Lily Dougherty, now its president, told in a brief historical sketch of the trials through which its founders went at its beginning and of the steady growth with constantly increasing interest. During its existence the society has held no less than 1300 Sunday evening prayer meetings; 250 business meetings, numerous socials, visits to the County Home and to individual shut-ins and has done much other practical good together with wielding a deep spiritual influence on all who attended, the extent of which cannot be estimated.

During the twenty five years of the society's existence there has been one member who has remained interested and faithful from its beginning to the present time and, in concluding her sketch, Miss Dougherty presented to Miss Annie Wolf a gold medal in recognition of this faithfulness. Miss Maud Miller told of the organization and work of the Junior Society which now has 151 members on its roll. Miss Lillian Ring sang beautifully "These Are They Which Came" and letters were read from Dr. Joel Swartz, of Baltimore, under whose pastorate St. James the society was formed; and from Dr. A. R. Steck, of York, and Dr. J. A. Clutz, of Gettysburg, who served the church as pastors during the life of the Christian Endeavor.

The evening's address was made by Rev. Joseph B. Baker who made an earnest plea for active and effective service rather than talks and meetings about the theory of religion. "What would any one have thought," he said, "on the night of July 1, 1863, when the Court House was filled with mangled forms, if the physicians and surgeons had sat down and read books on the theory of respiration, temperature or other medical subjects? You are now surrounded by mangled souls who need immediate attention. We criticize a doctor when he does not give immediate attention to an emergency call. There are emergency calls all about you. If the Christian Endeavorers in this land would all do their duty the victims would soon disappear."

Mr. Baker told of the coming revival to be held in St. James church during the month of February and asked all to get down to practical religious work.

Prof. O. G. Klinger organized the society in 1888 with these as the charter members: Charles Swartz, Frank Swartz, Miss Annie Wolf, Mrs. Lillie Miller Powell, Miss Kate Miller, Miss Sadie Stallsmith, Mrs. Elizabeth Howard Swartz, Mrs. Rose Pitzer Stevenson, Mrs. Blanche Grammar Ernest.

MRS. D. S. COLEMAN

Mrs. Celia Miller Coleman, wife of Daniel S. Coleman, died at the home of her son in Hanover Saturday afternoon at 4:20 after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Coleman had been ill for some time and when her condition became serious several weeks ago she went to her son's home where she remained to the time of her death. She leaves her husband, her son, Roy Coleman, of Hanover, and two brothers, J. E. C. Miller, of New Oxford; and N. C. Miller, of Brush Run.

Funeral service at ten o'clock Tuesday morning at Salem United Brethren church.

EDWARD MARKLE

Edward Markle, aged 76 years, died very suddenly at 6 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jeremiah Millheim, near Sell's Station.

He is survived by three daughters and three sons—Mrs. Alfred Wildasin, of Blooming Grove; Mrs. William Arter, of near New Chester; Mrs. T. F. Millheim; Eli Markle, of West Manheim township, York County; Calvin Markle, of Parkville; and Albert Markle, of Midway. His wife died about six years ago.

Funeral Tuesday, November 25; brief services at the house at 12 o'clock noon; further services and interment at St. Paul's (Duffs) church, Rev. S. L. Hench officiating.

MRS. R. KING MCLHENY

Mrs. Sarah McIlheny, widow of the late R. King McIlheny, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, died November 5th, at the home of her son, J. Frank McIlheny, aged 86 years.

She was a daughter of Francis and Eliza Montfort, whose home was in Hunterstown. She married R. King McIlheny in 1850 and lived three years on the old McIlheny farm on the banks of the Conewago Creek. They moved to Butler County, Ohio, in 1858 and from there went to Chicago in 1893. They moved to Bartlesville, Oklahoma, where her husband died in 1904.

She is survived by her son, J. Francis McIlheny, a half sister Rosa Montfort, of Columbus, Ohio, and two half brothers, Sebrean, of Sandusky, Ohio, and Armstrong, of Kansas.

She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church.

DEER SEASON NEARING CLOSE

Adams County Hunters Kill Large Bucks on Closing Days of the Season. Arendtsville Camp Got Five. Break Camp.

With the closing days of the deer season now at hand reports are being received of more bucks falling before the local hunters.

Joseph Cooley, of the Brysonia Deer Hunting Club, shot a six prong buck one day the latter part of last week.

The Cashtown camp got another large buck last week. It had five prongs on each side and weighed 175 pounds. Three shots were fired almost simultaneously at the deer, by Paul A. Martin, Samuel Shultz and Lawrence Rebert, and it has not yet been decided to whom the head shall be given.

The Arendtsville Deer Club broke camp on Saturday. The original intention had been to stay out for the entire season but they felt they had gotten their share and decided to quit. The following members each got a buck, James C. Cole, Dr. J. O. Lessig, James W. Eicholtz, William N. Hartman, Edward Hall.

George Shoemaker, near Conococheague, shot a large buck, weighing 180 pounds, below Eagle rock, back of Mont Alto, Friday.

Percy Stoops, of Biesecker's Gap, brought down an 8-prong, 150-pound deer at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, near the vineyard. This makes four deer for the Gap hunters, this season, and they are elated over the good showing they have made.

Several other deer are reported in the Buchanan Valley letter as having been killed last week.

MONEY FOR HOSPITAL

Carlisle Has Half of the $50,000 Required.

Carlisle's campaign for $50,000 for a hospital has closed half the allotted period of ten days with half the amount secured. The Rev. G. M. Diffenderfer, who is the guiding genius of the effort, is confident that the whole will be secured. Among the larger contributions are $1,500 from Col. John Hays, the Frog and Switch Company, $1,500; Carlisle Gas and Water Co., $3,000, and the Aerie of Eagles, $1,000. This latter is considered a remarkable contribution, inasmuch as the Eagles' membership is less than 200 and is composed of workmen in moderate circumstances. Saturday night the hospital campaigners marched in parade with the Carlisle Indian Band, and addresses were made from the headquarters by the Rev. H. D. Steck, D. D., and Dr. D. Gray. All the smaller towns surrounding Carlisle in Cumberland county are raising a quota, but the amounts have not yet been ascertained.

SILK MILLS BUSY

Mills of York Being Operated at Full Capacity.

The silk industry in York has been revived, and all of the mills are being operated at their full capacity.

The Pennsylvania Textile Company, which took over the defunct mills of the American Silk Corporation, has placed in operation the three York factories, and are now advertising for more hands. They have enough work to secure steady employment for some time.

The Souter Silk Manufacturing Company in the western part of York is also rushed with orders.

ELECTED PASTOR

Dr. Steck Elected Pastor of First Lutheran Church, Carlisle.

Rev. A. R. Steck, D. D., pastor of the Union Lutheran church, of York, was on Saturday unanimously elected pastor of the First Lutheran church, of Carlisle, Pa., to succeed Rev. G. M. Diffenderfer, D. D. The vote was not only unanimous, but enthusiastic. The church at Carlisle has a capacity of over 1200 in the auditorium.

WILL PLAY GAME ON THANKSGIVING

College Athletic Council Decides to Play Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster on Thursday. Mr. Schaeffer Better.

The College Athletic Council at a meeting Saturday evening decided not to cancel the game with Franklin and Marshall at Lancaster on Thursday and every preparation is now being made to get the local team in shape for the closing contest of the season.

It was generally reported following the death of Mr. Wray that all games would be cancelled for the remainder of the season but it was realized that such action would inflict a heavy financial loss upon Franklin and Marshall, who reap a large return from the Thanksgiving Day game, and that to annul the game would probably interfere seriously with arranging further athletic schedules.

The funeral of Homer H. Wray, the college student who died on Friday evening, was held at two o'clock this afternoon from his home in Leechburg.

George H. Schaeffer, the foot ball player who was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital on Saturday suffering from blood poisoning, underwent a completely successful operation there during the day and is expected to be able to resume his studies in about three weeks.

James S. Glass, of Coatesville, a Sophomore, is at his home suffering from appendicitis; Frederick W. Hoffman, of Altoona, is home ill, and George S. Poust, a Prep student, has been taken to his home in Hughesville threatened with pneumonia.

CLEARED $31.00

Jenny Wren Club Produces Play for Civic Nurse Fund.

The college play, "After the Game," was presented on Saturday afternoon at the Wizard Theatre by the Jenny Wren Club. It was under the direction of Miss Frances Fritchey for the benefit of the Civic Nurse Fund and was a success in every way. A large and enthusiastic audience was present. The young girls knew their parts well, and acted them in a way that would have done credit to grown-ups. Great credit is due them for their devotion of vacation hours to rehearsals and for their success in selling tickets. They cleared over $31.00. The same club is dressing a doll to be given to a poor child on Christmas day. The success of the play was furthered by several generous citizens who contributed the theatre, tickets and furniture, thus lessening expenses.

The following took part in the play: Genevieve Power, Elizabeth Huber, Sara Neely, Elizabeth Evans, Justine Hartley, Edith Sheely, Lorene Roth, Lucille Bender, Anna Miller, Margaret Major, Louise Bender, Martha Major.

Between the acts good lively music was furnished by William Troxell and by Edna and William Zinzand.

MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT

Road between East Berlin and Abbottstown Scene of Accident.

Samuel W. Hassler, of York, was painfully hurt in a motorcycle accident Sunday afternoon on the road between East Berlin and Abbottstown. His machine, it is said, while traveling at a high rate of speed, struck a gutter and the rider was thrown a considerable distance, alighting on his left shoulder. He was found lying along the road and was taken in an automobile to East Berlin where Dr. Eugene Elgin reduced the fracture. he was then taken to York.

NOEL—FORD

Mr. Noel, of McSherrystown, and Miss Ford, of Hunterstown, Married.

Harvey A. Noel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben V. Noel, of McSherrystown, and Miss Lillie Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zachariah Ford, of Hunterstown, were married in St. Mary's church, McSherrystown, Tuesday evening, by Rev. L. Aug. Reudter.

They were attended by the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Bossler, of McCoysville. Mr. and Mrs. Noel will reside with his parents for the present.

FIRST BIG ONE

First Large Hog of the Season Weighed 461 Pounds.

WAS WOUNDED HERE

Confederate Veteran Survives Injury here. Now Loses Leg.

William C. Long, 73 years old, Confederate veteran, of Harrisonburg, Virginia, lies seriously ill at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital. It has been found necessary to amputate his leg between the knee and the hip on account of a severe injury sustained on Thursday, when he was shot in the leg accidentally by Paul Koontz, 16-year-old son of Mail Carrier M. E. Koontz. They were returning from a hunt, when young Koontz stumbled over a wire and fell, causing the discharge of his gun, the lead entering the rear of Mr. Long's leg. Physicians hurried to his assistance, but so great had been the loss of blood that an injection of a saline solution was necessary before the operation.

At the Battle of Gettysburg, half a century ago, Mr. Long was shot in the leg, and while being carried from the field another bullet passed through his hand. He recovered from his injuries and went back to the front in several months.

Following the accident on Thursday young Koontz lost his head, and in his fright ran several miles before he could be halted and assured that he had nothing to fear.

LINCOLN HIGHWAY NEWS

More Towns Name their Streets for Lincoln Highway.

Resolutions are now before the aldermen of East Liverpool, Alliance and Wooster, three Ohio cities, to have the name of the principal thoroughfare through which the Lincoln Highway will pass as "The Lincoln Way." The road in Wooster county, outside the city of Wooster, has already been named "Lincoln Way" by the Board of County Road Commissioners.

Fi M. Hardwick, of Tuscarawas Street West, Canton, claims to have placed the first Lincoln Highway road marker in Ohio in front of his place of business. The claim is disputed by other Ohio cities on the route of the highway.

MOTHER TELLS

How Her Little Girl Was Restored to Health.

Mrs. Chas. Schrieffer of 139 Himrod St., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "My little girl was frail, sickly and all run down after having had the grippe. I was advised to give her Vinol and after the first bottle noticed an improvement. She has taken four bottles and has picked up rapidly, having gained six pounds in three weeks."

The reason Vinol builds up weak, ailing children so quickly is because it contains in a delicious combination the two most wonderful tonics—i.e., the strength creating, body building elements of cod liver oil, with all the useless grease eliminated, and tonic iron for the blood added. If you have a weak, puny, ailing child, try Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to benefit your little one. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

Few Folks Have

Gray Hair Now

Druggist Says Ladies are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

MAY ASK COUNTIES CLOSED FOR DEER

Anti-Hunting Petitions May Follow Close of Season.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 24.—The close of the deer hunting season tomorrow will be followed by applications to close counties to deer hunting, in the opinion of men connected with the state game commission.

Under the law the game commission may close to the hunting of deer and elk counties where 200 citizens petition and against which no good protest is made.

Four western counties, Westmoreland, Fayette, Somerset and Cambria, which have no deer, except those in state preserves, have been closed, and there are reports that Indiana and Armstrong counties may ask to be closed. Lebanon and Schuylkill, in the eastern half, neither of which have any deer, but which have plenty of mountains, are asking that deer hunting be prohibited for a term of years to enable the animals to breed.

Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, the veteran game official, says that in counties where deer are unknown in recent years the closing will be a good thing, but he does not favor shutting off of counties like Franklin, for instance, because a few people want to stop deer hunting.

This season's hunting took toll of two of the state elk, one being killed in Mifflin and the other in Center county. In both cases the state will sue, because elk may not be shot until 1921. The state has been spending money for elk so that they may breed. Reports are to the effect that in some counties buck deer were more abundant than usual, but there was any number of does.

LOST HUNTER NEARLY DIES

Wanders in Circles in Woods and Goes Hungry Two Days.

Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 24.—After being lost in the woods of Tioga county for over two days, James Briggs, twenty-seven years old, of Galston, wandered into his hunting camp, near Leontonia, in a serious condition, because of his frightful experience and lack of food.

Briggs started out with the party from the camp on Thursday morning, but soon became separated from the other hunters and wandered farther than he had expected. When darkness came on he did not know where he was, and in trying to find a way out of the woods fell down a hole made by coal prospectors. He was badly bruised and was unable to get out for two hours.

He then built a shelter and passed the night in the woods. Friday he again spent in wandering about, apparently in a circle, and spent another night in the open.

Saturday evening, when he was almost exhausted and suffering severely from his injuries and the exposure, he wandered into his camp, where he was taken care of by his companions, who had searched for him in vain.

Sends Tree By Parcel Post. Franklin, Pa., Nov. 24.—A tree was shipped from Franklin by parcel post. It was collected by Albert Bunnell, a rural carrier, for a farmer who desired to send it to a friend in Ohio. The branches had been bound closely to the trunk of the tree with twine, and the girl was therefore only four inches. The tree was eight feet long, and Bunnell would not accept it until the farmer had sawed it off to keep the parcel within the limitation.

Girl-Wife Leaps to Death.

New York, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Rosie Roth, seventeen years old, and three weeks married, sought her husband's forgiveness after their first quarrel in their home in the Bronx. Max Roth, her youthful husband, pretended he was unforgiving. "Goodbye; I'll end it all," the girl cried. She ran to a window and jumped four stories to the crowded street and was instantly killed.

FEDERALS ARE DRIVEN BACK

Overawed by Rebel Army Under General Villa.

WERE MENACING JUAREZ

Constitutional Commander Declares Huerta's Troops Retreated Before General Engagement Took Place.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 24.—With a battle line extending for twelve miles from Bauche on the west to Lamesa on the east, less than fifteen miles south of and below Juarez, Pancho Villa's rebel army has overawed and driven back the federal army, which late Saturday night was menacing Juarez.

This is the substance of the report brought to Juarez by Villa himself, who, with a bodyguard of forty men, returned from the front to arrange for sending additional supplies to his men in the field.

A federal troop train arrived at Tierra Blanca, but the federals were driven back before a general engagement took place, and Villa says the entire federal force is in full retreat. Tierra Blanca is only eighteen miles from Juarez.

Penic-striken by the sight of the vanguard of the rebel army, Villa declares that the federal army advancing to attack Juarez retreated in haste on Saturday shortly before dark. He further says:

"The federals hastily backed their trains southward from the neighborhood of Tierra Blanca. We do not know how far they went, but think that they did not stop before reaching Samalayuca."

Samalayuca is thirty-two miles to the south of Juarez, on the Mexican Central railroad, where the first fight occurred on Saturday.

The principal fighting that has featured the northward advance of the federals took place Friday evening near Samalayuca, when a rebel scouting party of 100 men, under Rodolfo L. Pardo, moved to attack a party of federal soldiers, who had detained there.

Villa encamped, his army and is waiting for the federals to approach again. If they do not come he says he will go after them in a few days. He does not mean to bring his army back to Juarez unless driven in by the federals, he declared. Villa says he thinks the federal army numbers about 4000 men, although the federal agents claim that it numbers 5500 men.

"I have placed my army in position twelve miles south of Juarez," said Villa. "The extreme right wing rests at Bauche, on the Mexican Northwestern railway, twelve miles from Juarez. The extreme left is at Mesa, thirteen miles from Juarez, on the Mexican Central railroad. The front extends for a distance of twelve miles between these two points."

"The story that I am planning to evacuate Juarez is false. When I do evacuate it will be only when the bullets drive me out, and that is highly improbable. I had left my army twelve miles outside the city, so that I can give protection to families living here and across the river in El Paso when we fight."

A. F. OF L. ELECTS OFFICERS

Chose Philadelphia as Next Meeting Place and Adjourn.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 24.—The American Federation of Labor adjourned after electing officers and choosing Philadelphia as the place of its next convention, which will assemble on the second Monday of November, 1914.

The officers chosen are: President, Samuel M. Gompers; first vice president, James Duncan; second, James O'Connell; third, Dennis A. Hayes; fourth, Joseph H. Valentine; fifth, John R. Alpine; sixth, H. B. Perham; seventh, John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America; eighth, Frank Duffy, general secretary of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners; treasurer, John B. Lennon; secretary, Frank Morrison.

In this list are only two new men. White and Duffy. Second Vice President John Mitchell and Fifth Vice President William D. Huber retired voluntarily.

Horse Throws Gen. Leonard Wood.

Washington, Nov. 24.—General Leonard Wood, head of the United States army, was thrown from his horse and knocked unconscious while riding over the parade ground at Fort Meyer. General Wood was assisted to his feet as soon as he could be reached by artillerymen and carried to a shady spot by Private Burk, of the Third Field Artillery. He regained consciousness after a few minutes and insisted on remounting.

Criticizes Woman Labor Law.

York, Pa., Nov. 24.—In an address delivered here at a meeting of the manufacturers, Mayor John R. Lefcan criticized the legislature for passing a law which regulated the hours of women workers. Mayor Lefcan said that neither the girls of York nor of Pennsylvania asked for such legislation, and that the bill was merely the work of agitators. The mayor contended that employees are only too glad at times to work extra hours to make additional money.

WANTED TO BURN DEAD NEGRO

Mob Attempts to Seize Body of Slain Man.

KILLED ASSAULTING WOMAN

He Was Shot to Death By White Man and Husband of Colored Woman He Attacked.

Wilmington, Nov. 24.—A mob tried desperately to secure possession of the body of James Davis, thirty-five years old, a negro, in order to burn it. Davis had been shot and instantly killed by a white man and a negro for an attempted attack upon Mrs. Alice Hilton, a negro, at Price's Corner, five miles from Wilmington.

Only the timely intervention of Coroner John T. Spring prevented the crowd from succeeding. A light had already been applied to a pile of collected underbrush, which was to serve as a pyre for Davis.

Isaiah Hilton, husband of Mrs. Hilton, and Elsworth Longland, a white man, a contractor, both of whom shot Davis after they responded to Mrs. Hilton's cries for help, as the negro tried to overpower her in her home, were arrested, but later released.

Davis, the police say, has been wanted for two months in connection with attacks on women along the lonely country roads in the vicinity of Wilmington.

Longland declares he saw Davis enter Mrs. Hilton's home after breaking in the door. Before Longland could reach the house Mrs. Hilton's ten-year-old son, in an effort to protect his mother, planted himself in the negro's way. He was knocked down with the butt of Davis' pistol.

The contractor reached the woman just as the negro began choking her. Longland drew his revolver and fired at Davis, who fell to the floor, probably mortally wounded.

Hilton, who had been escorting two women to a car, rushed into the house, attracted by his wife's screams. As he saw Davis collapse, he whipped out his revolver and sent a bullet into the body of the already dying man.

The scene of the attempted attack is near the spot where in 1903 George White, a negro, was burned at the stake for having attacked and then killed Helen Bishop, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Rev. A. G. Bishop, a Presbyterian clergyman.

Davis has terrorized rural New Castle county, just outside of Wilmington, for two months past by his lawless acts. His name became a by-word.

Davis had eluded capture for six weeks despite a diligent search by the authorities and armed residents of the vicinity where he held forth.

Six weeks ago he attacked and cut the throat of Mrs. Mary Elliott and feeling ran high.

BOOTH BROTHERS TO MEET

Long Deferred Reunion to Take Place in New York Today.

New York, Nov. 24.—General Ballington Booth, commander-in-chief of the Volunteers of America, and his brother, General Bramwell Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, will have their long deferred reunion today. It was announced at the Volunteers' headquarters.

A letter sent a week ago by General Bramwell Booth, now in New York city on his tour of the country, to General Ballington Booth, seems to have gone astray, otherwise an earlier meeting probably would have been arranged, it was said.

The meeting of the brothers will be private. The two separated seventeen years ago, when Ballington Booth organized a separate body after quitting the Salvation Army.

FINE BEQUESTS TO CHURCH

Besides Gift of $50,000, a Mansion Goes to Congregation.

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 24.—The will of Samuel H. Kaercher, one of the leading attorneys of this county, who died a week ago, was filed at the court house and disclosed a bequest of $50,000 to the Second Presbyterian church. The Kaercher mansion on Mahanongo street, in the aristocratic section of Pottsville, was also bequeathed to the church. This property is worth $250,000.

Mr. Kaercher's estate is valued at close to half a million dollars, the bulk being left to his widow.

General Sherman's Daughter Dead.

Gallop, Miss., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Minnie Sherman Fitch, wife of former Lieutenant Thomas W. Fitch, U. S. N., and daughter of General William Tecumseh Sherman, died here, aged sixty-two years. She was editor and publisher of her father's letters and memoirs. President Grant attended her wedding at Washington in October, 1874.

Wilmington May Get Convention.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 24.—This city will probably be selected as the place at which to hold the next annual convention of the National Grange, the forty-seventh convention of which has just ended in Manchester, N. H. Although no city has been definitely decided upon, it is believed that next year's convention will be held in Delaware.

THE WEEK'S WEATHER

Not Likely to Be Cooler Till the End of the Week.

Several more days of moderate weather, with sunshine, are in prospect for most of the country east of the Rocky Mountains, according to the Weather Bureau's weekly forecast.

"Rains are indicated Monday in the Southern States," says the forecast, "but with this exception generally fair weather will prevail for several days east of the Rocky Mountains, and probably well toward the end of the week over the Eastern portion of the country and also the Southwest. Temperatures will be moderate over the West-Central portions and will fall to more normal conditions to the eastward, with a decided fall over the northeastern districts."

"Present pressure distribution indicates the approach of another disturbance to the Far Northwest, bringing with it rains over the North Pacific States during the early days of the week and probably local snows and rains over the extreme Northwest a day or so later. After the middle of the week these unsettled conditions will drift eastward, probably reaching through the Lake Region into the St. Lawrence Valley toward the end of the week."

"The northwestern disturbance will be followed by rising pressure and falling temperature, beginning by Tuesday or Wednesday over the extreme Northwest and extending eastward to the North Atlantic States by the end of the week."

"There are no present indications of any very low temperatures."

COMING SHOW

Next Play at Walter's Theatre on Tuesday Evening.

You can't afford to miss it. If you enjoy a real treat, written by an author of real worth and acted by a company of actors of real ability you can't afford to miss "Where Is My Wandering Boy", which comes to Walter's Theatre next Tuesday night. The play appeals to every father, mother and child, playing to more young men and young ladies than any other attraction. Every situation in the play is interesting; every scene in the play magnificent, making in all one of the very best attractions on the road to-day. The tone of the play is moral and uplifting. It tells a beautiful story well constructed, depicting the life and struggles of the "Wandering Boy"—advertisement

WEDDING STIRS WASHINGTON

Plans Have Been Completed For Ceremony in White House.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS ARRIVE

Miss Wilson's Trousseau and Personal Gifts Fill Seven Trunks—Full Rehearsal Tonight.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Nothing short of a presidential inauguration could have set official and resident Washington so agog as has the approaching wedding of Miss Jennie Wilson, the president's second daughter, who will be married tomorrow afternoon to Francis Bowes Sayre.

As the wedding hour approaches the interest has waxed in a geometrical ratio. The White House, with the possible exception of the express office, is quite the busiest spot in the capital. Miss Wilson's trousseau has arrived at the White House, and most of it is packed in trunks ready to ship to Williamstown, Mass., the future abode of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre. There will be at least a dozen trunks containing the linens, personal gifts and trousseau. They will be sent away this afternoon or tomorrow morning, and will be followed by boxes and crates containing the wedding gifts.

The White House "house party," which will continue until after the wedding, is being increased daily. A number of out-of-town guests, chiefly relatives of the bridegroom, have gone to a nearby hotel because of lack of room at the White House, but they spend the greater part of their time at the executive mansion.

It is expected that a full rehearsal of the wedding will take place this evening.

Like every other bride-elect, Miss Wilson goes through the usual "showing off" of the engagement ring at each party. The ring is the conventional solitaire diamond, with a slender gold band and platinum setting. The stone is about a carat and a half and is of blue white tinge and beautifully cut.

Tomorrow's company will be only half the size of that witnessing the marriage of Alice Roosevelt. Consequently there will be no crowding in the east room nor in the state dining room, where there will be tea and the usual afternoon refreshments following the congratulations.

An elaborate breakfast was a feature of the Roosevelt wedding, which will go down in history as the merriest ever known in the stately old mansion.

The music of the Marine Band which will play the wedding march will be supplemented by a choral service arranged by Miss Margaret Wilson, the musician of the family.

Except for the difference in the hour and the presence of five bridal attendants, Miss Jessie Wilson's wedding will be conducted along much the same lines as that of Miss Roosevelt.

Miss Jessie Wilson is known as the serious member of the president's family. She fitted herself even during her school days to become a missionary. Her whole heart was in that calling, but she was not strong then and her parents discouraged her intentions from the beginning.

After graduation from college she was more anxious than ever to go at once into foreign fields of work. Her parents' wishes finally dominated her own desires, and she took up settlement work in Philadelphia. She has been far more interested in this than in social gayeties.

Mr. Sayre's tastes are along similar lines. Both are deeply interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. They will continue this work after their marriage.

GIRL SAVES BROTHER

Dashes Into Creek and Pulls Little Fellow to Shore.

Sheldonsville, Pa., Nov. 24.—When she heard her brother William, three years old, screaming in the vicinity of Shamokin creek, which runs close to her home in Rockefeller township, Miss Ella Reiman, eighteen years old, ran out.

She was just in time to see the little tumbled head go down in the swirling stream. Jumping in, she waded and swam to where he was pulling him out. After getting to the shore, she pined first aid to the injured methods and saved his life.

Asks $500,000 in Alienation Suit.

New York, Nov. 24.—Talamon Cuyler, a young lawyer, formerly of Atlanta, Ga., brought suit in the supreme court against Isabella T. Barton, his former mother-in-law, for $500,000 damages, alleging that she alienated from him the affections of his wife Grace T. Barton. The defendant lives in Alameda, Cal., with the daughter who obtained a divorce from Cuyler in the courts of that state.

"JOSHUA SIMPKINS"

Have the Old Thriller for Coming Melo-drama.

The sensational rural comedy drama, "Joshua Simpkins", will be produced at Walter's Theatre on Friday November 28. The play contains an interesting and intelligible plot, but it is not allowed to interfere with the fun, which is said to be in abundance. During the run of the piece some startling scenes and situations are seen, the principal of which is said to be the saw-mill, in the third act, shown in complete operation, cutting up real timber. The saw used is the genuine article, the same as usually seen in large country sawmills. An excellent band and fine orchestra accompany this attraction. The band will parade at noon, when some good music may be looked for, all being dressed as farmers.—advertisement

Costly Ivory Mats.

There are but three mats of ivory in existence? The largest one measures eight feet by four feet, and, although made in the north of India, has a Greek design for a border. It is used only on state occasions, like the signing of important state documents. The cost of this precious mat was almost incalculable, for more than 6,400 pounds of pure ivory was used in its construction. Only the finest and most flexible strips of material could be used, and the mat is like the finest woven fabric.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Gettysburg People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;

But if you find 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles may follow;

That dropsy or Bright's disease may be the fatal end.

You will be glad to know the following experience.

'Tis the statement of a Gettysburg citizen.

Mrs. C. F. Brinkerhoff, 25 Breckenridge St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "One of my family has had great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills and we willingly recommend them. Last winter the one had a severe attack of kidney complaint and pains in the small of his back. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills made a cure."

Mrs. Brinkerhoff is only one of many Gettysburg people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches or if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Brinkerhoff had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
